The Grayling Police Department reports a breaking and entering at the Legion Bar the morning of July 5th, with $75 in cash taken from the coin-operated vending machines and cash register. There was another breaking and entering the morning of July 7th at the A & W drive-in, owned by the Bernard Opps. A filing cabinet was forced open and $50 in change taken. Sometime between July 6 and 9 there was a breaking and entering at the Road Commission garage on State Street, where a pickup truck was stolen. The Department believes that the last two crimes were committed by the same person or persons. The City Police, the Sheriff's Department, and the State Police are working on the cases.

Play Start Teen Center

A beginning towards a possible playing Teen Center has been made this week. A group of 15 people met Tuesday morning at the Grayling High School with Mr. Bloom, executive secretary, Michigan Inter-Agency Council for Recreation. Mr. Bloom spoke to the group about the needs of such a center. On Monday morning, the Grayling School Board offered the use of the South Side School for such a purpose providing it did not upset any of the insurance held on it. Also on Monday evening, the Grayling City Council offered free water, lights and sewer to the building for the summer program. They also offered help in fixing up the building for teenagers.

Offered to the program by individuals have been pingpong tables, pool tables and a possible snack bar. The main stumbling block at the present time seems to be the hiring of a qualified director for the program. Several people in the area who are qualified in recreational operations will be interviewed in the next few days in an attempt to hire a director. Also a board of directors will be formed to work with a director in setting up the program, the number of days and evenings it is to operate and what type of a program should be offered.

A board will be formed and among the members probably will be John Stephan, Barry Egan, Charles Kroll, John Alef, Dr. J. F. Cook, Ward Ellison, James Baker, Lacey Stephan Jr., Jean Putwood, William Joseph, Mrs. Richard Duflois and James Thompson.

Further details of the plan will be published in next week's edition.

Little And Junior League Standings

Little League, 8 to 12
The Crawford County Road Commission has erected the signs directing traffic for the north Down River ramp into Grayling along County Road between the Fish Hatchery and Old 27. The signs designating Old 27 have been erected from Grayling north to the county line, and there will be boards indicating the towns and mileage along Old 27 for the convenience of the tourist. This will be for both north and south-bound traffic.

The Highway Department has ordered the necessary sign indicating Grayling after leaving I-75 southbound at the Business Route (M-93), which is very much needed.

The Crawford County Road Commission deserves much credit for engineering the designation of Old 27 as such, and the mileage signs between towns along it. The local Chamber of Commerce also deserves much credit for its part in the signing program.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

July 7th, 1962
Grayling, Mich.
Mr. Robert Strong, Editor
Crawford Co. Avalanche
Grayling, Michigan

Dear Bob,
The other day I received a letter, though addressed to myself I believe the message it carries should be passed on to many of the residents of Grayling and the surrounding area.

First I would like to take the time to set one thing straight for the record. I personally had very little to do with the founding of the "Little League" in Grayling. I think that the Grayling Moose Lodge No. 1162 deserves a round of applause for the work that they have undertaken in organizing the league. It is just the beginning, because there is much more work ahead to keep an organization of this size moving and growing.

Following is the letter I received:

Mike Joyce
Grayson Stadium
c/o Savannah White Sox
Savannah, Georgia
30 June 1962

Dear Jim,
Just talked to my parents on the phone and they were telling me that you had a hand in starting a Little League around Grayling. That is really swell, because as a graduate of a newly formed little league, it is of untold wealth.

It provides something for the little guys to do, and that's the important thing I believe. Provide the opportunity for those that want to take advantage of it. Then there's the ultimate goal of anyone who is serious about the game as I have always been, to become a major leaguer. Your new league will provide the opportunity for those who aren't just playing to be playing.

I'm sure you see what I mean and pointed that out to many previously. If you ever need a supporter on your cause for some reason, I'd be glad to help in any way I can.

I guess it will be a long time before I see Grayling during baseball season again. I sure miss the people I met there and our cottage and golfing. It's too bad there are no people in the U. S. who are as friendly and just down right pleasant as people from Grayling have always been to my folks and me.

I'm sure my folks will keep you filled in on the details of my season. I'm now 6-3, I've lost all 3 on unearned runs and could easily be 9-0. As it stands my earned run average is leading the league at 2.07. My walks are also probably low for the number of innings. I'd say one thing, the secret to pitching, put the ball over the plate with something on it and you win.

I'm in Portsmouth, Virginia now and it has rained hard. We are scheduled for two tomorrow. Guess I'd better be getting ready for bed.

Say hello to all the Grayling crew.

Sincerely,
Mike

The above letter as you will note was dated 30 June 62. Just 2 days later 2 July 62, Mike reported to the Chicago White Sox at Tiger Stadium, Detroit and pitched a very good night in the ninth inning. On the 3rd of July he worked the 10th, 11th and 12th innings, losing to Detroit by an unearned run.

Mike through hard work and good training has reached his ultimate goal at 21 years.

Some local people will remember Mike when he played in the Crawford County League as a third baseman for Sammons Diggins.

Yours truly,
Jim Ritchie

"THE NEXT FINE DAY"
By Elizabeth Yates

Maldey Corner closed and locked the door of her past the day after her son's fourth birthday, the day her husband was killed. He had been an American airman, but she wanted to forget him, and when people asked her now who Kent's father had been, she would reply, "Nobody in particular." The boy picked up the phrase, and when he started school still called himself "Mr. Nobody."

Mother and son lived without memories or roots—until Kent met the artist, John Rivven. Rivven was painting the herons that tradition said had returned to the village of Chilham on the Kentish Downs every St. Valentine's Day for a thousand years, boding well for the coming year.

Under Rivven's gentle prodding Kent and then Maldey began to probe life's continuity as embodied in the ageless earth and the mulberry trees of Chilham, in the herons, in the change of the seasons. What changes they admitted into their lives by the time the herons were due to return it would not be fair to the reader to give away.

Elizabeth Yates has written a story to warm the heart and calm the mind, a story of verities for our restless time. Nora S. Unwin has expressed its spirit and its setting in her line drawings.

This book is available at the Crawford County Library.

THE GROWTH OF MICHIGAN'S freeway system during the Michigan State Highway Department's first five-year roadbuilding program is shown on these two maps. Five years ago (map at left), Michigan had 101 miles of freeway. Today (map at right), Michigan has 803 miles of freeway open and 329 miles under construction. Contracts for modernization of nearly 4,000 miles of other state highways also were awarded during the last five years.

If Your Not Registered, You Can Not Vote In August

CANDIDATES FOR THE August primary are in. Are you?

Persons interested in gaining state or Congressional offices all made their filing deadline. The next deadline will determine who will select Michigan's elected officials.

With many state legislators facing opposition for the first time, much of it from individuals who were elected to the Constitutional Convention, the importance of casting a ballot in the primary is sharply increased.

Michigan voters traditionally vote heavy in the November general election, but the primary count is usually low.

This year, with the only statewide primary run in the race for the Lieutenant Governor nominations, State Elections Director Robert M. Montgomery said, wouldn't be surprised if the tally in August is lower than usual.

The only way to have a voice in government is to insert your choice on the ballot.

In Michigan's primary you must choose either a Republican or Democratic ballot on which to vote, but this choice is not binding in any way on your choice in the general election.

This year's deadline for primary registrations is July 9.

The choice of candidates is great. The 1962 elections would be a good time to give a careful look at the candidates, their platforms, and their individual qualifications to serve you.

IT IS ALL BUT ANNOUNCED, and by the time this is printed, the voters will not consider the proposed Constitution until the April ballot next year.

Constitutional Convention President Stephen S. Nisbet filed suit which was taken to the Supreme Court, to gain ballot placement in November. The Attorney General previously held that the Convention would have on complete, its work earlier than it did if the proposed document were to come to a vote in November.

An August 1 final adjournment session set by the Convention would have on complete, its work earlier than it did if the proposed document were to come to a vote in November.

A single-day session in August would put the document just barely over the 90 days required by law for a question to be proposed before it can be voted upon.

Preparing a ballot on a relatively simple 100-word question of public issue is a chore in the 90 days allowed. To prepare the ballot for the proposed new Constitution would be a "nightmare to even the best expert," one state official said in considering the possibility of having only the minimum time.

Unfortunately, the question of when the Constitution will be put on the ballot has taken on political involvements because of personalities and the party structure of the Convention.

Ideally, to gain the maximum vote on the document, it would be placed on the November ballot.

Maple Forest
By Miss Bonnie Feldhauser, Mrs. Arthur Howse and Mrs. Carrie Baynham

Bill Beck and his sister Eunice Weaver spent the past week at Glen, where their father, Mr. Clifford Beck had surgery.

The Carl Bailey family enjoyed a week vacation at their trailer house located on the Smith farm.

Mr. Victor Parsons came for the weekend to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Parsons, and to pick up his wife and 2 children who have been vacationing at the summer home of her parents, the Joe Hennings of Lewiston.

Sherry Lynn accompanied her sister, Mrs. Carrie Baynham, home for the weekend and visited at the home of her father, Ed Feldhauser.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Megill attended the Reynolds family reunion at Elmira Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Megill and daughter, who have been vacationing here and at Elmira the past week, left for their home in Grand Rapids on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Reigler and 3 daughters of Rome, New York, called at the Ed Feldhauser home on Tuesday evening. Mr. Reigler was an Army buddy of Jack Feldhauser's and spent a few days visiting at their home in Grayling.

Everyone knows that people are funny. But if anything, motorists are even funnier than people.

named L. O. R. O. Y. Witherspoon, for instance, who lives in Philadelphia.

F. C. Welsh, who was charged with being drunk at the scene of an accident.

He won his case by explaining to the judge that he wasn't drunk at the time of the accident. It was just that it took so long for the police to arrive that he went into a nearby saloon to warm up.

Another motorist in Lodi, California, was tickled for driving without a license. When the case came in court, the police learned the real reason he didn't have one. He was drawing a state pension for blindness.

In Dallas, Texas, an inebriated motorist who was being pursued by police swung into a residential driveway and right on into the vacant garage. Getting out of the car he confronted the police with the explanation that he was on his own property, had definite rights, refused to show his driver's license and was going to bed.

"Not in MY house, you're not," the policeman replied.

After last year's Paris automobile show, a French newspaper came up with a guide to the nationality of prospective car buyers.

If the buyer studies the engine, he is German; if interior comforts got most of his attention, he is English; if styling seems most important to him he is French; and he is Italian if he tries the horn. But if he measures the size of the car he is American.

At 4 o'clock Saturday morning the members of the 31st regiment which is mostly made up of Detroit boys were awakened and ordered to prepare to entrain. The large tents had been taken down the night before and the guards were sleeping in their pup tents.

It wasn't long before the city of tents was entirely divested and cleaned up. There wasn't a scrap of paper to be found where for two weeks 1,600 men had made their homes. In Kansas City they were ordered to El Paso, Texas, and arrived there Tuesday. From all appearances the 32nd regiment will leave soon.

Erner Matson, who for several years has been conducting a barber shop upstairs over the Dawson restaurant, has purchased a half interest in the George W. McCullough shop. BITS O' TALK

Miss Eunice Schreiber entertained some 20 members of the Schreiber families at a potluck dinner at her down river home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Edmonds and daughter Nancy of Flint were present for the day, and Mr. and Mrs. York Edmonds of Beaver, Oklahoma, who have been here for some time visiting the Schreibers and Servens families. They left Monday, planning to stop in Cadillac and Flint, and Pueblo, Colorado, on their way home.

Guests at the Oscar Borchers home the past week were Mrs. Roland Hummel of Clawson, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Benedict and son Paul of Alpena. Other recent guests of the Borchers were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Poll and daughters Diane and Denise and son Douglas, and Mr. and Mrs. Fay Johnson and son Dennis of Grand Rapids.

Dr. Stanley Stealy attended a family reunion at Elkhart, Indiana, recently, accompanying his cousin Verness Stealy of Marshall. There were 40 members of the family who attended.

The Reginald Ashtons and children Dale Lynda and Karyn stayed overnight with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Gross and Carol, on the 3rd, returning home to Saginaw on the 4th after a day's camping vacation at Muller Lake in Flint on Sunday.

Mrs. Minnie Penn of Auburn was here Saturday morning to visit Mrs. Maggie Levertov.

Grandson, James Joyce of Detroit, also visited her. Sunday, he was camping at Houghton Lake. Mrs. Levertov got word Monday that her new home in Flint, Mich., had been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Dore Bancroft.

Mrs. Levertov and Mrs. Dore Bancroft planned to attend the funeral on Wednesday of this week, in Flint, of Mrs. Margaret Crest of Stow, Ohio, who has been a guest of Mrs. William Foley and Mrs. Matilda Bishop of the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Foley enjoyed exploring the local lakes in his boat which he made and brought with him.

Hatchery Installs Fish Food Vending Machines

Twenty-one dollars worth of fish food in penny and nickel handbills is a lot of fish food, but that's what visitors tossed to the trout at the hatchery at Grayling over the June 30-July 1 week end. To accommodate tourists who like to watch fish jump, splash, and scramble, the Conservation Department installed vending machines at the hatchery on a trial basis which apparently met with a triple success -- for the tourists, the fish, the hatchery caretakers. Nutritionally-correct pellets are dispensed by the machines in one and five-cent lots. This assures the fish of a proper diet; cuts down on the usual popcorn, peanuts, bread crumbs and candy and at the same time reduces litter problems for groundkeepers.

Volunteer Fire Dept. News

The last section of the floor was poured in the Fire House Sunday. The rain held the men up for a while in the morning, but by late afternoon the floor was finished.

Next Sunday the Department plans to finish the driveways and finish the door casings. Plans are now being made to start on the roof as soon as possible.

The Department wishes to thank all the men who have given their spare time to help build the Fire House. It was just three short months ago that the Volunteer Fire Department started.

The Department has two fire trucks and a partially completed Fire House.

It's been a lot of hard work and sacrifice for the whole community, but no one minds when we can all see what we have accomplished in such a short time. Many thanks for the support everyone has given the Volunteer Fire Department.
